FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Michigan Association of Chiropractors Leads the Way with Continued Support for the Foundation for Chiropractic Progress

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – January 25, 2011 – The Michigan Association of Chiropractors (www.chiromi.com), the source for family wellness doctors in Michigan, pledged to renew its support of the Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (www.f4cp.org) during the 2011 Parker Vegas Seminars held on January 13th - 15th. The Michigan Association of Chiropractors renewed monetary support of $18,000 brings the state associations total contributions to over $55,000.

“Working together with the Foundation has allowed our organization to take their national marketing materials and distribute personalized messages at the statewide level,” commented Kris Dowell, executive director, Michigan Association of Chiropractors. “The Foundation continues to create powerful messages that help us, and other state associations, build our own programs within our respective states.”
