FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College Proves Commitment to Foundation for Chiropractic Progress

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – January 25, 2013 --The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (F4CP), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness about the value of chiropractic care, is pleased to acknowledge the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College (CMCC), an institution located in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, that delivers world class chiropractic education, research and patient care, for its continued support of the F4CP campaign. The CMCC has supported the F4CP since 2009, donating $3,000 annually. The appreciated support of CMCC helps to facilitate greater success in educating the public about the value of chiropractic care.

“The CMCC community takes great pride in supporting the F4CP campaign,” shares Jean A. Moss, DC, MBA, president, CMCC, who complements the new F4CP champion ad featuring Canadian Olympians Jon and Darla Montgomery. “We believe it is essential to display our dedication to an organization equally devoted to bringing positive attention to the chiropractic community.”

Established in 1945, CMCC focuses on basic and applied research related to neuromusculoskeletal interactions and the study of chiropractic’s role in integrated care and health promotion.

Kent S. Greenawalt, chairman, F4CP, points out the significance of the CMCC contribution, sharing: “It is very encouraging to have the support of a prestigious organization outside of the U.S. – it confirms the expansive reach and impact of our campaign. The F4CP is appreciative of its loyal supporters, and looks forward to accomplishing more for the chiropractic profession both in and outside of the U.S.”
