FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Garrett Gunderson Donates Valuable Artwork to the Foundation for Chiropractic Progress

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – December 26, 2013 -- The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (F4CP), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness about the value of chiropractic care, is pleased to announce that financial advocate Garrett B. Gunderson, Founder, Freedom FastTrack, has generously donated $99,125 to the F4CP in the form of 25 contemporary photographs. This charitable contribution will help to facilitate future campaign initiatives that bring attention to the evidence-based approach of chiropractic care.

“Doctors of chiropractic have been key principals to the success of my health and especially for my son,” shares Gunderson. “It is an honor and privilege to give back to such a great profession. My contribution to the F4CP will help to bring positive attention and success to chiropractic. I encourage others to join me and invest in the future of this growing profession.”

Created by artists Michael A. Smith and Marilyn Bridges, the photographs range in size: 14x17, 14x26 and 26x30. The F4CP hired Allen Dodworth Art Appraisal Associates to appraise the artwork to determine the monetary value based on fair market rate. Due to standard regulation, the F4CP is required to hold the artwork for a minimum of three years prior to selling.

Kent S. Greenawalt, chairman, F4CP, gratefully accepts the new contribution, sharing, “This donation provides great promise for the F4CP mission. It is gratifying to know that our organization will be able to continue to build the chiropractic profession with little to no financial disparities. We are hopeful that others will follow the lead of Gunderson and our many other supporters.”
