FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Foundation for Chiropractic Progress Welcomes Greg Harris to its Board of Directors

CARMICHAEL, Calif.; MARIETTA, Ga. – February 15, 2013 – The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (F4CP), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness about the value of chiropractic care, is thrilled to announce the appointment of Greg Harris, vice president, University Advancement, Life University, to its Board of Directors.

“Appointing Harris to the F4CP Board of Directors will only benefit the campaign,” says Kent S. Greenawalt, chairman, F4CP. “Harris’ expertise, particularly in corporate fund raising, will be a valuable asset to the overall growth of the organization. As prestigious individuals -- such as Harris – continue to accept appointment to the F4CP Board, I expect only improvements and greater success will result.”

Earning both his undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Cincinnati, Harris currently specializes in alumni relations, fund raising, post graduate education and business development programs in his position with Life University. Harris has experience working with non-profit organizations, fund raising, event planning, grant writing, public speaking, volunteer management, community outreach and strategic planning. Preceding his role at Life University, Harris held the position of chief advancement and administrative officer at the Detroit Zoological Society.

Harris will join the following industry leaders as a member of the F4CP Board:

- Kent S. Greenawalt, CEO, Foot Levelers
- Dwayne Bennett, president, Foot Levelers
- Gerard W. Clum, D.C., president emeritus, Life West Chiropractic College
- Don Petersen, publisher, Dynamic Chiropractic
