

Media

Lauren Kennedy
201-641-1911 (14)
lkennedy@cpronline.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEFoundation for Chiropractic Progress to Support
2014 Congress of Chiropractic State Association Convention

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – October 27, 2014 – The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (F4CP), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness about the value of chiropractic care, calls attention to the 2014 COCSA Convention New Orleans, November 6-8, 2014. The event will feature countless opportunities for networking and special presentations from the former U.S. Surgeon General Dr. Regina Benjamin, Dr. Fabrizio Mancini and national association speakers Pat McGaughey and Beth Zienesis.

“We are excited about this year’s program, which offers attendees an opportunity to learn from and connect with outstanding leaders from both in and outside of the chiropractic profession,” states Amy Hardin, executive director, COCSA. “Additionally, it provides a chance for attendees to engage with over 42 premier industry vendors, including the not-for-profit F4CP. We expect this year’s meeting will be one of our most successful yet.”

Each year, the COCSA Convention unites over 45 state and national chiropractic associations to collaborate and share best practices and tools for success in areas, including IPAs, HIPAA, Medicare, current professional issues such as school physicals, scope of practice, and legislative strategies.

Throughout the three-day event, specific topics are covered and mastermind sessions are held to bring attention and resolution to national chiropractic challenges and the future of the profession.

Pleased to participate at the COCSA Convention, Kent S. Greenawalt, chairman, F4CP, states, “As an influential chiropractic group, it is critical that we participate in the important discussions held at the COCSA Convention. Fortunately, COCSA recognizes the significance of our input and, each year, provides the F4CP with complimentary exhibit space and time on its agenda. We appreciate this generosity and look forward to contributing to the success of this COCSA event.”

To learn more about the COCSA Convention, visit: <http://www.cocsa.org/event/COCSA2014NewOrleans>.

About Foundation for Chiropractic Progress

A not-for-profit organization, the Foundation for Chiropractic Progress aims to inform and educate the general public about the many benefits associated with chiropractic care. To learn more about the Foundation, please visit us on the web at www.f4cp.com or call 866-901-F4CP (3427).

###