FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Foundation for Chiropractic Progress Welcomes Kray Kibler to its Board of Directors

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – September 8, 2014 – The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (F4CP), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness about the value of chiropractic care, is pleased to announce the appointment of Kray Kibler, chief operating officer and chief financial officer, Scrip Companies, a distributor of chiropractic, physical therapy, massage, spa and consumer home health supplies and equipment, to its board of directors. Kibler’s extensive background in corporate management and finance will offer significant value to the organization.

“We are elated to have Kibler join our board of directors in its mission to generate increased awareness of chiropractic care,” says Kent S. Greenawalt, chairman, F4CP. “We expect that he will bring a unique perspective to our board and help to spawn new ideas that result in greater levels of success for the chiropractic profession.”

In addition to his position with Scrip Companies, Kibler serves as an Illinois Certified Public Accountant and an adjunct professor at Trinity International University, where he teaches accounting and finance courses in the undergraduate adult degree completion program. Kibler earned a B.S. degree with High Honors from Geneva College, and an M.B.A. degree from North Park University.

Honored by his recent appointment, Kibler states, “I wholeheartedly believe in the mission of the F4CP and am eager to assume my new role. I look forward to working alongside a board of seasoned professionals to help advance the chiropractic profession through a positive press campaign.”
