FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Foundation for Chiropractic Progress Presents at National Association of Worksite Health Centers Third Annual Forum

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – October 15, 2015 –The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (F4CP), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness about the value of chiropractic care, will support the 3rd Annual National Association of Worksite Health Centers \(NAWHC\) Forum, October 15th, 2015, 8:30 a.m.-4:15 p.m., Chicago, Illinois, which focuses on “Onsite Clinics: The Hub of Worksite & Fitness Programs.” The F4CP will sponsor the presentation, “Integrating Chiropractic and Physical Therapy Services into Clinic Services,” with a targeted discussion on the value of doctors of chiropractic (DCs) within onsite corporate health clinics.

Registration: <http://www.worksitehealth.org/>.

“In the new era of health care reform, employers are looking for solutions to maximize value and productivity among employees, and we are honored to have the F4CP share the merit of chiropractic care with our audience,” says Larry Boress, executive director, NAWHC, an affiliate of the Midwest Business Group on Health.

Co-led by Daniel Lord, DC, Physical Medicine Lead, Crossover Health at Facebook Health Center, the F4CP presentation will articulate the role of chiropractic care to optimize clinical and financial management of neuro-musculoskeletal conditions among workforce populations.

According to Kent S. Greenawalt, chairman, F4CP, “In the workplace, low back pain ranks second to upper respiratory conditions as a stated cause for loss of work, with treatment costs in the U.S. exceeding $50 billion a year.” He continues, “Earlier this year, the F4CP authored a position paper entitled: “The Growing Role of Doctors of Chiropractic in Corporate On-Site Clinics,” which documents the supporting evidence of chiropractic care within onsite clinics, and we are eager to further communicate the findings with employers and seasoned industry professionals!”

The NAWHC focuses on assisting public and private employers, unions and other sponsors of worksite health programs in receiving the greatest return from their onsite health centers, onsite pharmacies, worksite fitness and wellness centers. Each year, the NAWHC hosts several education and networking events for its members.
