FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Northwestern Health Sciences University Increases Continues Support of The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – January 25, 2011 – During the 2011 Parker Seminar in Las Vegas, Nevada, Northwestern Health Sciences University (www.nwhealth.edu/index), an international leader in natural health care education, patient care and scientific research, pledged an additional $15,000 donation to the Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (www.f4cp.org). Northwestern, a long time supporter of the Foundation, has now donated over $100,000, all of which helps generate positive press for the chiropractic profession.

The success of Northwestern Health Sciences University is dependent on the success of the chiropractic profession. Our ongoing contribution is an example of our commitment and belief in the program

“The success of Northwestern Health Sciences University is dependent on the success of the chiropractic profession,” commented Mark Zeigler, board member, Foundation for Chiropractic Progress. “Our ongoing contribution is an example of our commitment and belief in the program.”
