Foundation for Chiropractic Progress Recognizes the Florida Chiropractic Association for Significant, Ongoing Support

CARMICHAEL, Calif. – September 13, 2013 – The Foundation for Chiropractic Progress (F4CP), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness about the value of chiropractic care, is pleased to acknowledge the exceptional, long-term support of the Florida Chiropractic Association (FCA). The FCA contributions, which exceed $150,000, have helped to ensure the steady development and success of the positive press campaign.

“We recognize the F4CP’s commitment to chiropractic and the importance of its message,” states Jeremy M. Gordon, D.C., president, FCA. “Lending our support directly benefits the entire chiropractic community, and we are thrilled to be in a position to help propel the organization forward for years to come.”

The FCA demonstrates its support in more ways than one. In addition to monetary donations, the association provides the F4CP with complimentary exhibit space and promotional opportunities at its annual conventions. The added support presents the F4CP with valuable chances to drive campaign awareness and attract new members, enabling greater levels of success to be achieved.

Kent S. Greenawalt, chairman, F4CP, appreciates the generosity of the FCA, stating, “Thanks to the tremendous encouragement of the FCA, the F4CP is able to move forward, raising awareness, educating the public and positively impacting chiropractic as a valued profession.”
